

Call for 2019 Donald Hood Student Research Grant

Deadline: April 26th

Graduate students who are members of AARC are encouraged to apply for the AARC Donald Hood Student Research Grant. This annual grant program is designed to recognize and honor students who are seeking to complete research investigations that show promise for outstanding contributions to the counseling profession. The Student Research Grant provides a cash award up to $500.00, a certificate of recognition presented at the AARC Annual Conference.

For more information about the awards please visit: <http://aarc-counseling.org/awards>

TO APPLY

Please submit the following materials:

1. Vita and cover letter.
2. Faculty letter of support.
3. A five page research proposal* written in APA 6th ed. style that includes the following:

- A title page, abstract, introduction, methodology, and selected references.
- 50-word statement indicating how the project will be helped by the grant.
- 50-word statement discussing the project's significance.
- A projected budget and timetable for the project's completion.

*The title page and references are not included in the page count. An appendix up to 3 pages may be submitted with the proposal.

All documents should be amalgamated into one .pdf file and submitted to the AARC Grants Committee Co-Chairs via email AARCstudentgrants@gmail.com